

Forming Stage

Team will rely on manager for guidance, individual roles and processes have yet to be established.

Storming Stage

How team decisions are made becomes clearer however team dynamics are still blurry.

Performing Stage

The team is performing well with little managerial oversight and is focused on becoming strategic.

Norming Stage

Team dynamics are well-understood and processes are established and aimed towards achieving team goals.